SAL-MUSCATELLE

IN AMERICA

Without the Expense of an European Journey!

The crystallized salts, as obtained in a pure state from grapes and choice fruit, in a portable, palatable, simple form, are now presented to the public of America as the greatest relief of impure blood, corrector of the liver and regulator of the bowels—the natural promoter of HEALTH AND LONGEVITY.

Eminent physicians claim this achievement a new era in the allied science of medicine, as it furnishes the blood with its natural salines that are lost or eliminated every day.

Sal-Muscatele

A POSITIVE NATURAL

SICK HEADACHE and DYSPEPSIA CURE.

Sal-Muscatele is Nature's own product. It supplies to the system the want of sound, ripe grapes and fruit; it is the simplest and best preventative and cure for all functional derangements of the liver and its kindred ailments; prevents the absorption of malarial diseases—fevers of all kinds; counteracts the effects of bad air, poor drainage and impure water; a powerful expeller of the blood, a natural specific for all skin eruptions, sick headaches, biliousness, nervousness, mental depression, and will remove the effects of accidental indigestion from excessive eating and drinking. Have it in your homes and on your travels. It is a specific for the fatigued, weary or worn-out. Prepared by the University text books at Nasby's.

D. A. Bender, of Carson, and W. E. Price, of Ophir, came down on the noon train yesterday.

Attention is called to Mrs. Hessel's ad in to-day's paper. She has an entire new stock of Spring and Summer millinery.

Mrs. H. Davis and son Harry left last evening for San Francisco, where Mrs. D. goes to meet a sister coming from Texas, whom she has not seen for 20 years.

In addition to the public school books, C. J. Brookins will keep all text books to be used at the State University. He also keeps all the latest and most popular sheet music.

The proposed suit against General Clarke as Receiver of Public moneys from January 5 to March 12, 1865, when he was appointed U. S. District Attorney, seems to be wholly without cause. He has the Department letter settling his accounts satisfactorily.

The appointment of Judge Thurman to a place in President Cleveland's Cabinet would do more to strengthen the Administration in the confidence of the party than any act the President could perform. Whether he will have the sagacity, upon Mr. Manning's retirement, to do anything so politic and proper as to restore so great a favorite of his party, and friend of the people, to public life, only the event can determine.

POPULAR VICES.—A writer in the Reno Journal comes squarely out against the regular Sunday games of base ball by the "Dudes," "Typos" and "River-sides." He says the evil was at first "like a poisonous toadstool," but has since "grown to the size of a mighty tree, whose shadow is deadly." He seems to think it strange that this should be allowed in a Christian civilized community. He also remarks "there are some pretty hard cases in our town; hoodlams of the very lowest type." And he also objects to the crowds of ladies, young and old, who will persist in being spectators of these Sunday games of base ball. In all of this he is doubtless correct, but he does not go far enough, and come down on the sly little games of croquet in back yards, also on the popular style of going out on fishing excursions and to pleasure resorts on the Sabbath, or even dashing about town in carriages and cars on that holy day, some as though it was a popular holiday. And then, too, there are the little private games of poker, faro, etc., in the back rooms, and the drinking that is eternally going on in the saloons, for whatever there may be in the shape of public or private games, that one great vice always progresses—drinking goes on; drinking goes on.—Enterprise.

SENATOR FAIR SUES.—Wm. Irvine has filed a complaint in the San Francisco Superior Court against James G. Fair, in which he avers that on the 24th of December, 1879, he held 4,998 1/2 shares of the Morgan Mining Company in trust for the defendant, and that he so continued to hold the stock until May, 1884, the same standing on the books of the corporation in the name of the plaintiff; that between the dates mentioned he paid assessments on the stock to the amount of $15,290.06, and that the stock was worth $50,000. In May, 1884, the plaintiff transferred the stock to defendant, but the latter refuses to refund the money advanced; whereupon plaintiff asks the Court to give him judgment for that amount.

BUYING AND SELLING STOCK.—The Northwestern Stock Growers Journal says J. R. Bradley, of Elko, purchased three Polled Angus bulls, at Cheyenne, last week, and H. L. Byrne, also of Elko, was endeavoring to dispose of a couple of thousand head of stock from his range near the Idaho line.

CHOICE CIGARS.—Nasby has received a fresh lot of the famous Key West cigars, of which he makes a specialty, as being the best in the market. Experienced smokers prefer them, and good judges of cigars go to Nasby's for their smoking material. Drop in and sample the Key West cigars.

What an Outsider Has to Say of This "Growing Evil."

EDITOR JOURNAL:—In Tuesday's JOURNAL there appeared a communication about the "shameful" practice of playing ball on Sunday. Now, as there are several unjust accusations included in this communication, I, as a disinterested citizen, and a spectator of the so-called "shameful" games, beg leave to reply to the same.

The communicant first says that a great evil has, of late, sprung up in our midst. Now I wonder if "S" stopped to consider whether the beneficial results of ball playing surpassed the evil or not! I think I can give him a little information on this score, as curiosity has led me to investigate the matter, and learn what effect, if any, the games have on the saloons about town. Last Sunday there was no ball game, and I found the several saloons I visited doing a "rushing business." Do not understand me to say the boys, who would otherwise be playing ball, were in the saloons, but many who would have been interested spectators of the game were the ones who helped to fill the bar-rooms. On inquiry one of the principal saloon keepers informed me that the ball game is, in his opinion, the best thing Reno ever saw to keep boys out of the saloons.

I venture to say all the saloon keepers in Reno agree with "S" in saying ball playing should be stopped on Sunday; for it affects, in no small degree, their receipts.

As every one knows, base-ball is a healthful exercise, and the acknowledged field sport of America. And it is certainly our duty to see that our boys take such exercise as will physically develop them, thus making them men fit to meet the trials of life, and competent to take their part in the control of this glorious land of the free. And I say these boys, who have no time at all during the week that they can call their own, most of them being confined in the house while at work, must take their exercise and recreation on Sunday or else do without, and I think our citizens should not place a barrier on their Sunday playing for it is a necessary evil. The question is, shall we allow our boys to spend their Sunday's around the saloons or on the ball ground?

It is an insult to our people to have our young men, who engage in ball playing, branded as hoodlams who corrupt the morals of those who associate with them, for it is a well-known fact that the young men who compose the base-ball clubs are among the representative young men of our town, and have reputations not to be injured by such an empty communication as that in question.

As for the betting that observing "S" speaks about, it is hardly right to blame the base-ball clubs of our town for that, as they do not encourage it, and those that do the betting do so outside the clubs.

And now comes the most insulting and ill-grounded accusation of all—that which attacks the character of the young ladies who witness these games, and charging the young men with profanity. Now I defy anyone to prove that profane language has been used by any of the players in any of the games played. I, as a spectator of several of the games, assert that this charge is entirely false. Why, the Managers of the different clubs inform me that they have a standing fine of $1 for any profane or impolite language used on the ball ground. They also inform me that they have not found occasion to enforce this fine. Your correspondent should know better than to insult the young ladies who witness these games, for no lady would stay and listen to profanity, as he has the "cheek" to assert under cover of his hidden name.

In conclusion, I will state that your communicant is very ignorant of the condition of affairs in this State, or else he willfully makes false statements when he says, or hints, that our boys are the worst in the State. Everybody knows they do not gather in gangs and attack Chinamen and other citizens and destroy property and the like, as is the condition of affairs in some of our neighboring towns.

The dollar of our daddies is still the coin of the realm.

A Government Building also for the Comstock.

The Enterprise says:
Congressman Woodburn has introduced a bill in the House, appropriating $30,000 for a Government building, to be located in Reno, for the accommodation of the United States Surveyor General's office and the Postoffice. That's all right, and not even Carson objects, but next in order should be a public Government building for Virginia City. We need such a building here for the Postoffice, United States Marshall, Collector of Internal Revenue, etc. About $150,000 of an appropriation, or even less, would answer the purpose. The grand old Comstock contributed numerous millions of dollars in the time of the nation's greatest need for the support of the Government, when that vital support was the most required. Virginia City remains as she was then, the headquarters of the battle-born State, yet has never asked any financial return or political recognition of her noble, unswerving loyalty to the Government. Senators Fair, Jones and Representative Woodburn are all old Comstock residents and well know and appreciate the truth and force of these remarks. This one little community, comprised within the extent of two miles, did more at the period mentioned for the financial support of the Government than any other State in the Union, or the whole Pacific Coast combined, and now it would merely be a graceful act on the part of the Government to recognize our loyal efficiency by bestowing a public building here where it would do at least as much good as anywhere else in the State.

Cleveland's Hard Road.

The New York Herald publishes a long dispatch from Washington, telling the President how he can retrieve his mistakes. Its principal advice is to take the people into his confidence. It gives the following "interview," published in a Southern paper, with Lawrence Barrett, describing his recent visit to the President: "I spent a day with him a short time ago, when I was in Washington, and really he presents a pathetic picture. A strong man fighting alone the great battle to which he is pledged. Ridiculed by his enemies and doubted by his friends, he feels his position keenly. He said to me: 'I have made mistakes. I see them, many of them, and could kick myself when I think about them, but I am only human and as liable to err as other men. I get no generous sympathy and honest, patriotic counsel, and all I hear is bickering strife and fault-finding among scheming politicians who have no other aim than to get themselves and friends in office. But for the occasional wave of popular indorsement that breaks its way over the reef of office-seekers and politicians that hedge me about, and comes to me like a season of refreshment and a cry of God-speed fresh from the people, I should break down, heart sick and discouraged.'"

Opposition to the Tariff Bill.

The New York World's Washington special of April 12th says: There is, without doubt, a disposition upon the part of the Democrats to defeat the Morrison Tariff bill. All the Democrats from Ohio will join with the minority in opposition to the bill. This is based upon the fact that wool, which is one of the chief products of Ohio, is to be placed upon the free list. The Democrats of the Eastern and New England States, with the possible exception of Collins of Massachusetts, will oppose the measure as it now is. One of the most prominent Eastern Democrats said to-day that the bill as it now stood could not be passed through the House, but H. Hunt said part of it could. The Virginia delegation is divided, as are also the delegation from the Carolinas. Three Louisiana members are down as opponents of the bill. Alabama, Georgia and Florida are known quietly to be in opposition to its more important features. It is estimated that about forty Democrats, with the bill in its present shape, will be found working against its passage, which will be enough to defeat it. The measure will be taken up about the 1st of May, with the probability of the debate lasting until June.

THE CRADLE.

EVANS—In Reno, April 14, 1895, to the wife of J. N. Evans, a son—11 pounds.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world.
